WPCEA

The WEST POINT CHARITABLE ENTERPRISES OF ATLANTA is a tax-exempt 501(c)3 organization supporting charitable activities which encourage youth leadership development. Activities are selected for emphasis on character, intellectual and physical development consistent with the ideals of West Point. In 2003 and 2004, WPCEA provided scholarships for local students at Georgia Tech's SummerScape academic program and a Camp McCrady, South Carolina, program developing teambuilding and leadership skills to potential service academy candidates. In addition to supporting these programs in 2005, we're expanding to include projects such as the 2005 USMA Summer Academic Workshop.
